Tribe Demolishes Spa Hotel Despite Ongoing Dialog

Today the tribe began its unannounced surprise demolition of the Spa Hotel and Bathhouse. This is an outrageous betrayal of the tribe's public commitment to work with the city's residents as they moved forward with their 7-9 month plan for the prominent site. This is also a shameful betrayal of their promise to the preservation community in July that they would carefully consider the detailed marketing plan and tax credit package that we promised - and delivered - 10 days ago.

With this action the tribe is destroying a vital piece of the city's mid-century history and their own tribal heritage. And they have violated the trust that the preservation community put into our ongoing discussions with them. You will be hearing more about our response to this callous action shortly.
