In the middle years of the 20th century, the mountains and desert sands of the Coachella Valley inspired an aesthetic that became known as Desert Modernism. Notable for its use of glass, clean lines, natural and manmade materials, and indoor/outdoor spaces, Desert Modernism defined a lifestyle of elegant informality, adapted to the unique requirements of desert living. The talented designers created modern structures of every size and function: residential, commercial, civic, religious, and institutional. Remarkably, much of this historic modern legacy exists today to be appreciated by future generations.

Founded in 1999, The Palm Springs Modern Committee (PS ModCom) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the appreciation and preservation of Desert Modern architecture and design. We accomplish this through education, advocacy for threatened buildings, promotion of heritage tourism, and the celebration of successes in preservation and adaptive reuse.

Help maintain Palm Springs' and the Coachella Valley's Historic Modern Character.
